

BLUE and WHITE

VOL. 11

Phoenix, Oregon, December 15, 1922.

Number 4

Central Council

Phoenix

December 16, 1922.

Program

10:00 A.M. Roll Call
Report on School Standardization
Business Session
Election of Officers
"Standard Tests for Rural Schools"
Discussion--"Parents' Interest in Schools"
"Professional Training and Growth of Teacher"
Susanne Homes Carter

12:00 Lunch served by Phoenix ladies

1:00 P.M. Music-----Phoenix School

1:15-2:30 Departmental Sessions----Round Table
Leaders
Ella D. Tyrell-----Primary
Eunice Davis-----Advanced
Gertrude D. Furry----Rural
Each teacher is requested to present a problem for discussion and offer a helpful device.

2:30 General Assembly

Big Entertainment.

The Grade School promises to the Community a rousing good time on Friday afternoon, December 22, at which time an entertainment consisting of two good plays and numerous other good literary and musical numbers will be given. Everyone is invited.

FIRST GAME WON.

The Phoenix School is greatly elated over winning the first real scheduled game. The game was played against Applegate, last Friday night on the Applegate floor; it was a very fast game all the way through. At the end of the first half, Phoenix was two points ahead; at the end of the game, the score stood 18-15 in favor of Phoenix.

P. H. S. GETS NEW BASKETBALL.

The boys of the Phoenix High School have shown what good salesmanship really can do. Mr. Mialm received a pamphlet stating that by selling a certain number of pencils a school could earn a volley ball, soccer ball, football, or a basketball. The boys and Mr. Mialm decided that this would be a good chance to earn a new basketball so the pencils were sent for. Soon after every boy was selling pencils! Pencils! They sold them too. The boys always put a thing through, when once they have started.

Now they have the new basketball and they like it all the better because they earned it.

December 16, 1922

BICLAWHITE

IMAGINE IF YOU CAN.

Mr. Milam without his little "Black Book".

Joseph behaving in class.

Mildred Ward getting to school at 8:30.

The Freshmen girls not giggling.

Floyd Watkins without his Marcel.

John without that "sleepy" expression on his face.

Mr. Whitman without a smile.

Ned Wold not teasing the girls.

Elsie with her Civics lesson.

Published by the Phoenix Hi School

EDITOR-----R. Bolz.
 ASST. EDITOR-----H. von der HELLEN.
 SOCIAL EDITOR-----M. Ward.
 ILLUSTRATOR-----M. Bolz.
 TYPIST-----F. Watkins.

"Class Reporters."

Senior-----Tom Castor.
 Junior-----Lelia Nichols.
 Sophomore-----Everett Martin.
 Freshman-----Ruth Shortt.

Official publication of the Associated students of the Phoenix High School. Published twice a month during the school year.

Prices are 50¢ a year or 5¢ a copy. Ads are 25¢ for 2½ in. and 10¢ an inch for all over that or two dollars a page.

EDITORIAL

We have now won two out of four basket ball games we have played and we need the support of the community. To have a big crowd turn out the coming games will greatly encourage the team.

They have made a good start but without backing they cannot do much.

In all the games they have played they have shown the best of sportsmanship and have already earned a good name. They have not resorted to the least bit of dirty work and have accepted defeat or victory in a good spirit.

So let us back the boys by going to the games and rooting for Phoenix.

On Sunday Morning, Harold von der Hellen was offered a stick of popsin gum by a sweet young lassie, and of course he made a swift grab for it, (the gum). He unwrapped it and started to take a huge bite, but lo and behold! It was only a piece of cardboard in disguise! Harold's face registered 210 Farhenite at being fooled by a girl.

BIG GAME OVER

Although we got beat Friday evening we have not given up hopes of winning that cup this year nor of getting Talent's hide either. We'll show Talent what she is up against when we meet her on February 9th. It would mean much more to us to beat her on her own floor anyway.

Even if the score did stand, 30-13 in favor of Talent we made them play for it.

It was a clean fast game and the large crowd enjoyed every minute.

Carelessness and failure are twins.

Dec. 16, 1922

PERSONAL CLIMFOLS

Dorothea McClain, Floyd Watkins, Andrew Stevens, and Jeannette Sheets attended the national attraction, "The Old Homestead", last Saturday evening. They enjoyed it very much.

Audrey Smith and Chester Parsons attended the photoplay, "The Old Homestead", last Friday evening and thought it very good.

Della Mast enjoyed a photoplay entitled "The Old Homestead", last Saturday.

Mildred Bolz spent the greater part of her time Saturday in Medford purchasing Christmas gifts.

Gladys Dele was indeed faint when the English papers were returned and she found her grade exceptionally low.

Mildred Ward has been absent the past few days on account of illness.

Bessie Hilderbrand nearly needed the services of a doctor when she received her last Algebra grade.

Ruth Short was visiting at Eagle Point during Thanksgiving vacation.

Idella Nichols and Ruth Short visited Mrs. and French last Saturday afternoon.

Arlet Anderson stayed with Tom Gaster Sunday night. He did not want to go home because he was expected to milk while his father was in Medford.

Joseph Angell and his mother were in Medford last Saturday doing some Christmas shopping.

Floyd Watkins is very industrially planning his life work. He believes in the old saying that the early bird catches the worm.

Glenn Nichols made a business trip to Medford last Saturday morning.

Cecil Hartley is engaged in the Manufacture of tractors. Their chief use is to send notes across the isle.

Echo went shopping in Medford last Saturday.

Winnie Schnack attended the Rialto Theater last Saturday afternoon.

G.W. Milam has been on the sick list the past few days, however, he never fails to answer duty's call.

Luma Johnson was shopping in Medford last Saturday.

Margaret Note attended the bazar at the Holland Hotel last Thursday evening.

Ned Wold attended a bazar last Thursday evening given at the Hotel Holland.

Frank Denzer, while hauling wood last Saturday, got stuck in an ally in the western part of Medford. The allies are very slick and soft because of the recent rains. He finally succeeded in getting to the woodshed by using chains.

Mildred Hu has was in Medford Saturday to have some dental work done.

Jeannette Sheets, Andrew Stevens, and Dorothea McClain were guests at the Watkins' home last Sunday. They enjoyed a lovely dinner and a jolly time. The afternoon was spent in singing and playing. The guests departed about 4:00 o'clock declaring that they had never had a better time.

Elsie Edwards did not attend the Basket Ball game or Sunday School because she had a severe cold.

Majorie Gaster visited the Medford Business College the day after Thanksgiving. She said it was quite interesting to watch the classes. Her sister is attending this college.

CHRISTMAS SPECIAL

ON

NUTS — CANDIES

The Phoenix Mercantile Company

Irene Stanley was very ill during the study of gerunds and infinitives in the first year English class.

Goldie Brown went to Grants Pass last Friday to visit her grandmother who is very ill.

William Hunter made a business trip to Medford, Saturday afternoon. He went to a dental office, where he had one tooth crowned and one filled. Mr. Hunter recovered rapidly and was able to roam about the city that evening.

Andrew Stevens got to bed on time last Monday night for the first time in two months, as there was nothing else for him to do.

Clifford Plankinship put in a few hours cutting wood Saturday.

John Rice had a dream the other night. He dreamed that he was a bootlegger and just as the officer caught him he fell out of the bed with such force that he shook the whole community.

Tom Gaster had several visitors last Sunday. Among his guests were John Rice, who is making his home with Tom this winter, Arlet Anderson, Earl Anderson, and Sam McElbee. They had quite an exciting time.

Everett Martin and Roy Carlson cut wood for . . . Collins last Saturday.

Harold von der Hellen was absent from school till Thursday afternoon. He had been at his home near Hellen since Saturday evening.

Dorothy Carlsson and Ethel Beggs are on the sick list and have not been at school for the past few days.

Roy Bolz has been working very hard to get his paper published. Part of the staff has been absent which makes it hard for the rest of the staff.

"That ends my tale", said the monkey as he backed into the lam-motor.

If you don't like our jokes, And sheer dryness makes you groan, Just stroll around occasionally with some good ones of your own.

X-

Lad--"Son, there's nothing worse than to be old and broken."

Young Hopeless--"Yes, father--to be young and broke."

Young Nubby--"You're three quarters of an hour late. What do you mean keeping me standing around like a fool?"

The Wife--"I can't help the way you stand."

If you have half an hour to spend don't spend it with some one who hasn't.